The screenshot shows the CRAN website interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays 'cran.ism.ac.jp'. The main heading is 'R-4.1.2 for Windows (32/64 bit)'. Below this, a prominent link reads 'Download R 4.1.2 for Windows (86 megabytes, 32/64 bit)'. Underneath the download link are two smaller links: 'Installation and other instructions' and 'New features in this version'. A paragraph of text explains how to verify the downloaded package using md5sum. To the left of the main content, there is a sidebar with the CRAN logo and several navigation links. At the bottom right, there is a section for 'Frequently asked questions' with a bulleted list of three items.
